I understand that we must provide our own bed linen and towels etc and that the cottage must be left clean and tidy upon departure. I understand that if I need to cancel the holiday more than 28 days before it is due to start, then the deposit paid will be forfeited. If I cancel within 28 days, the full hire charge will be payable unless the cottage can re-let within that time. If in the very unlikely event that, for any reason outside our control, we (the owners) need to cancel the holiday, we will refund all money paid to us in full and you will have no further claims against us. You are advised to take out insurance to cover you for any cancellation charges and/or accidental damage or breakage charges whilst on holiday.

I have read and accept the booking conditions printed above.
